The Scouting Program

BSA Overview

The Boy Scouts of America is one of the Nation's largest and most prominent values-based youth development organizations. The BSA provides a programs for young people to build character, trains them in the responsibilities of participating citizenship, and develops personal fitness.

For more than a century, the BSA has helped build the future leaders of this country by combining educational activities and lifelong values with fun. The Boy Scouts of America knows through over a century of experience and believes that helping youth is a key to building a more conscientious, responsible, and productive society. <http://Scouting.org/About.aspx>

The Scouting Program is based on the principle that learning can be fun. Every Scouting activity, and the manner in which it is organized and conducted, has a purpose behind it - to develop Character, Fitness, Citizenship, and Leadership.
