Camp Merryheart
 Feb. 22-23th

We will be making our 5th annual trip to this camp. A full weekend of winter sports and scouting activities will be planned. A heated cabin with bunks and a lodge with a full kitchen has been reserved. Bring sleds, hockey sticks and skates (if owned). Each scout is to make his own arrangements for transportation (Map attached). Scouts should arrive at 10:00 AM on Sat. and be picked up by 11:00 SHARP on Sun.

The Cost of this super weekend is only $25 per person (Adult leaders registered with the troop pay $12.50), this must be paid at the Feb. 10th troop meeting.

Other Announcements

Committee Meetings will be the 2nd Tuesday of each month, 7:30 PM at the Bruenings.

Congratulations, Mr. Falcone and all the Scouts who sold candy. A job well done!!

First Aid cream (POLYSPORIN) available through Mr. Greely and Mr. Armstrong, for $.35.

Swimming

On Friday Feb. 28th from 7-9 PM, we will be swimming at Raritan Valley Community College. Bring $3, a towel, handbook and suit. We will meet at OLM parking lot at 6:15PM. This is a great time to get your swimming requirements done.

Bowling

Annual fundraiser for Morris-Sussex Area Council. Troop 236 Bowl-a-thon, Feb 15th from 1:30 to 4:30PM at Oakwood Lanes, Washington, NJ. Meet at OLM parking lot at 12:45PM.

Scout Sunday Mass on Feb. 16th at 11:00AM at St. Marks, wear uniform.

Parents Note...

Parents are asked to please show consideration for the adult leaders by arriving promptly at 9:00 PM to pick up your son after meetings. We try, in planning the meetings, to end right at 9:00. It is becoming a regular practice that one of our leaders must stay, in the parking lot, to supervise boys waiting for rides. This is an unnecessary imposition on these men who are already volunteering countless hours for the boys.
